

HEAR ME!

The OSU RRTC on Health and Function

The “Can You Hear Me Now?” study wants to:

- 1) Listen to adults with intellectual disability (ID) talk about their health
- 2) Learn how many adults with ID have mental health needs - like sadness
- 3) Share how to help adults with ID who have mental health needs

H	Hear what adults with ID want to say about their health
E	Each person is important and included
A	Ask people how they are doing &amp; feeling
R	Report what we find &amp; share how to help

M	Make health surveys easy to understand
E	Empower adults with ID to say what they want in health research
